UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

IN RE ADAM R. GROSSMAN	CHAPTER 7 CASE NO. 10-19817-MLB RE: NEW DROP BOX HOURS

As a pro se debtor, my pleadings must be filed on paper, not ECF, and I file them at the Clerk's Office during business hours and through the drop-box after hours. I have understood that deadlines are 11:59pm each day. The Jackson Federal Building drop box was previously available after hours as shown on this snapshot taken May 24, 2013, on the Internet Archive:

> THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT WILL BE CLOSED on > Monday, May 27
> in observance of Memorial Day
> There is an after hours drop-off box outside the main entrance (7th and Stewart) of the building.

I am generally willing to deliver filings to the Clerk upon request for out-of-town parties and was informed I should expect one late Friday afternoon. When I arrived Friday, August 23, 2013, after hours to drop off several pleadings, I learned the drop box now closes at 5:00pm. On the morning of the next business day, I filed the pleadings with the Clerk, reprinted Proof of Service forms, and contacted the Trustee's counsel as a courtesy offering expedited delivery,

I request that the pleadings filed Monday morning be accepted and will not request another waiver as long as the hours of availability do not change.
